jovino got his start way back in 1986 when he began spinning new wave and punk rock records at a local club under the name car bomb.

he has since covered nearly every facet of music from playing in dance bands, to remixing, to producing his own original music.

his current musical obsession is with electrohouse and evil breaks. he can be found doing a weekly radio show on theory radio [<http://theoryradio.org>] every wednesday from noon – 2pm .

when he's not making music, jovino can be found behind the sewing machine making clothes for his company bunnywarez; doing stencil paintings or rock climbing.
