Sarah Delush

(SF/NYC)

A recent transplant from New York to San Francisco, SARAH DELUSH was featured in the style section of the SF Bay Guardian as a "scene maker", which pretty much nails her to a T. Current residencies include Bump! and West Addy at Underground SF, Club Super Ego, and EFF U Tuesdays at Beauty Bar SF, dropping everything from electro bangers to 80's/90's hip hop, and even the occasional yacht rock set for fun. Currently in production on a webcast fashion / music blog, OMFG! TV.

SARAH DELUSH is no stranger to the SF music scene. She started DJing pro under the name DJ Seraphim back in 1999 for super clubs such as Eklektic, Nikita, and Spundae at 1015. She also began a nationwide female DJ collective Sister USA, hosting events from here across the states, and played at Club Loaded, Lights Down Low, Infatuation, Le Royale, Studio B, Direct Drive, Respect LA, The Frisco Disco, Phuturo, Future Breaks, Compression, Groovetech, WMC, Vans Warped Tour (2001), and events in Seattle, Portland, Salt Lake City, Sacramento, Los Angeles, NYC, Miami & more. SARAH DELUSH has also featured in dozens of articles and publications, including NY Post, Bay Guardian, SF Weekly, XLR8R Magazine, The Examiner, and more. Mixes include: Seraphim (mixtape), Secular (CD), Angels Affliction (CD), Redline (CD), Summer Solstice (CD), and Electro Peep Show Volume 1 (CD).
